ORDER

AND NOW, this 1st day of July, 2024, upon consideration of Plaintiff Roland Graham's Third Amended Complaint (ECF No. 14), it is ORDERED that:

1. The Third Amended Complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii) for the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum.
2. Graham may file a fourth amended complaint within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Any fourth amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Graham's claims against each defendant. The fourth amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint, and Amended Complaints, or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. Only matters alleged in the fourth amended complaint will be considered part of this lawsuit. When drafting his fourth amended complaint, Graham should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his Third Amended Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Upon the filing of a fourth amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

3. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Graham a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Graham may use this form to file his fourth amended complaint if he chooses to do so.

4. If Graham does not wish to file a fourth amended complaint and instead intends to stand on his Third Amended Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Third Amended Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate." (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976))); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703–04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when the district court "expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

5. If Graham fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Graham intends to stand on his Third Amended Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.¹ See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his
